

Finds, Feathers and Shells

Jill Winch

22nd - 23rd Feb 2020

Saturday to Sunday

This is a two day course using coloured pencils painting finds, feathers and shells. Jill will bring along plenty of objects to ensure this course is full of information and practical advice. There will be lots of demonstrations throughout the weekend on using coloured pencils to achieve the fine hairs of a feather, or the smooth and twisted shapes of the shells, or even a knarled piece of wood. Bring along your own items or use some of the many objects that Jill will provide.

Description

Jill will demonstrate how to successfully use coloured pencils and will explain the different uses for them. Using a variety of coloured pencils, wax and oil based, but not water, Jill will demonstrate different blending techniques, with oil blenders, or just using the pencils themselves. Suitable manufacturers are Faber Castell, Prismacolor, Caran d'ache, among other makes....please bring along whatever you have.
