

Chinese Brush Painting - A Chinese Phoenix is more than the sum of its parts...

Paul Maslowski

23rd - 24th Mar 2024

Saturday to Sunday

Explore your first (or a deeper) taste of the art of the Chinese Brush with Paul who was traditionally trained. In this course we will explore the complexity of the Chinese Phoenix. Breaking it down into principal-led sections will give us the opportunity to explore how Phoenixes are put together so that you can create your own.

Description

This course will introduce the art of Chinese Brush Painting to those who have not explored this medium before as well as building more in-depth knowledge for those already studying and who wish to focus on Chinese Brush Painting in more detail.

Day 1 of this course will allow students to explore the elements of the Chinese Phoenix. Working toward the principles of the birds which make it up, will give us the opportunity to explore Phoenixes while learning a host of brush techniques which can be applied to other subjects

Day 2 will focus on applying techniques learnt on Day 1 in order to build toward creating a complete Chinese Phoenix.

The days begin traditionally with 20 minutes of optional qigong (gentle breathing exercises to settle the mind). Teaching is carried out with a step-by-step approach where the fundamentals of a subject are fully explained. This will include the Calligraphic basis for individual strokes. Students are encouraged to work from sketches of subjects and to use these observations in their own compositions.

Students will come to understand the essence of subjects in Chinese Brush Painting through tutor demonstrations, and by observation and practice. You leave understanding how to complete a Chinese Brush Painting.

Please bring with you

Essential:

Sketch pad,
notepad,

Standard Chinese Brush Painting kit (Chinese brushes, ink stick & ink stone and/or bottled ink, un-sized or semi-sized papers).

A felt mat is really helpful to lay your paper on, however, newspaper will do.

Dark clothing is preferable (and certainly no silk clothes) as Chinese ink can stain permanently

About Paul Maslowski

Paul is a distinguished practitioner of Chinese Brush Painting with a career spanning nearly three decades of immersive study in the UK, China, and Taiwan. His work is a bridge between the rigorous classical traditions of the East and the evolving contemporary expressions of the medium.

Having exhibited with international acclaim - most notably in Taiwan, a global hub for fine ink-wash art - Paul brings a rare, cross-cultural perspective to his teaching. His pedagogy is rooted in the 'Six Principles of Chinese Painting', focusing on the vital energy (Qi) and calligraphic 'bone' that define the genre.

A seasoned educator who teaches across England, Paul is dedicated to deconstructing this sophisticated art form into accessible, actionable techniques, allowing students to discover the meditative power of the Chinese brush.
