

Go With the Flow with Ink and Watercolour

Jackie Devereux

21st - 23rd Feb 2025

Friday to Sunday

Winter in colour - especially aimed at interpreting winter colours with texture and flair. An opportunity to work alongside professional artist and experienced tutor, Jackie Devereux, who will expertly guide you through simple exercises in penmanship and the powerful and exquisite use of watercolour.

Description

During this weekend course we shall gather together a variety of winter foliage and seedheads, and create dynamic impressions and compositions in the comfort of the studio. See how to bring more colour into what at first glance could be thought to be dim and dull ... and discover ways to interpret what we see. If you have any unusual seedheads lying around, please bring them along!

Please bring with you

Watercolour paper of your choice (I would recommend Bockingford 300g (140lb) 'HOT PRESSED SMOOTH', 'NOT' or 'ROUGH' both for price and durability)

Watercolour tubes are best for this course, but bring what you have. (Contact Tutor for more information if needs be)

Plastic palette

Magic sponge

Water spritzer

Permanent BLACK INDIAN INK

Permanent Fine Liner pen(s)

Dip pen holder & nib(s)

If you have any unusual seedheads lying around, please bring them along!
