

INTERPRETATIONS (a watercolour assault course)

Jackie Devereux

5th - 7th Jun 2026

Friday to Sunday

For all levels of experience or none! Where looking at a subject to paint is one thing, but interpreting it is another. This weekend will concentrate on getting to grips with looking more deeply into a subject, whatever that may be, and working out different approaches to painting it. This could be colour choices, brush selection, and above all composition. Through some carefully curated practical exercises, we shall go on this journey together. So if you have reached an impasse, are stuck in a rut, too tight or whatever - maybe just looking for a refresh button to press - join me for this exciting weekend.

years. Jackie's award winning work ranges from pure large contemporary works on paper, to delicate pencil, to expressive pen & ink and mixed media - all experimental in nature. She has travelled the world, always with the intention of capturing people and places as she goes. As drawing is an integral part of her work, Jackie enjoys working with groups and sharing her ideas and techniques, encouraging others to develop their own potential. Jackie's work is well published and collected internationally. She has been a regular contributor to The Artist Magazine, has exhibited widely throughout the UK and France, as well as in the USA and Japan. She has shown with the RWS, RI and with the Society of Graphic Fine Art, variously in Menier Gallery, Southwark; in Mayfair, Bankside and The Mall Galleries in London, and was elected and served as President of the SGFA for five years. Her work is shown in Mandells Gallery, Norwich; The Gallery at Waterperry House, Oxford, and often in Babylon Gallery, Ely and Gallery Holt, Holt, Norfolk.
